

Families play a powerful role in creating better lives for people with disability. This workshop explores the role of families as innovators, and new ways to develop, grow and deepen their impact.

About This Workshop

We invite you to join us for a hands on and inclusive workshop led by Vickie Cammack and Al Etmanski.

Families are the original innovators, and time and time again find creative ways to create better lives for family members with disability.

This interactive workshop will share examples of local and international innovation by families, as well as providing an opportunity to ask questions about Al and Vickie's experiences.

The workshop will cover:

- ▶ New ways of thinking
- ▶ New approaches to working together
- ▶ New methods of financing
- ▶ New social technologies

People with disability and families will leave with:

- ▶ New connections
- ▶ New energy and inspiration
- ▶ A draft strategy to grow your impact when you return home

Workshop Details and Registration

Date: Tuesday 26 September 2017

Time: 5:00pm – 7:00pm

Venue: The Auditorium, Centre for Disability Studies, 92-94 Parramatta Road, Camperdown

Registration fee: $50, which includes:

- ▶ Workshop
- ▶ Wine and cheese, followed by dessert

To register visit: www.cds.org.au/events

About Vickie Cammack and Al Etmanski

Vickie Cammack is a social entrepreneur who has set up many organisations dedicated to strengthening community and addressing social isolation, including Tyze Personal Networks. Vickie is also the founding director of the Family Support Institute of British Columbia and she co-founded Planned Lifetime Advocacy Network (PLAN). Vickie writes, consults and lectures on social networks, organisational transformation and scaling social innovation.

Al Etmanski is a community organiser, social entrepreneur and author. He is a founding partner of Social Innovation Generation (SiG) and BC Partners for Social Impact. As co-founder of PLAN he proposed and led the campaign to establish the world's only disability savings plan. Al is an Ashoka fellow, and a faculty member of John McKnight's Asset Based Community Development Institute (ABCD).