

I-CAN V5 Facilitator Training

Date: 15 - 16 August 2018

Registration Fee: $440

The I-CAN is a support needs assessment, planning and resource allocation tool designed to assess and guide support delivery for people with disabilities including people with mental health concerns. Workshop participants will learn how to administer the I-CAN and generate an individual support needs report, which helps guide service delivery and planning. Facilitated by Laura Hogan and Emma Doukakis.

Supervision, Mentoring and Peer Support

Date: 12 September 2018

Registration Fee: $185

This one day workshop is designed for disability practitioners/therapists who are new to supervisory roles or just want to know more about supervision. By attending the workshop practitioners will develop an understanding of what supervision, mentoring and coaching are and their unique differences, the role and importance of supervision, mentoring and coaching, reflective supervision practices, and documenting supervision plans, agreements and minutes. Facilitated by Laura Hogan and Emma Doukakis.

An Introduction to Person Centred Active Support

Date: 17 October 2018

Registration Fee: $185

Person Centred Active Support is an evidence based approach that teaches disability professionals how to provide the right amount of support for people with disability to be engaged in meaningful everyday activities or their choice. This one day introductory training will cover the evidence base, the approach, implementation tips & tricks, resources and much more. Facilitated by Laura Hogan and Emma Doukakis.

Research Fundamentals for Disability Service Organisations

Date: 1 - 2 November 2018

Registration Fee: $440

This two day workshop covers practical research planning and design, and is tailored to support organisations to design effective in-house or collaborative research projects that will assist with program evaluation and the development of feedback channels from service users to management. It also explores the co-production of research with people with disability. Facilitated by Prof. Patricia O'Brien and Dr Tanya Riches.

CDS Annual General Meeting (AGM)

Date: 8 November 2018

Registration Fee: Free

The Annual General Meeting for the Centre for Disability Studies is open to Board Members, CDS staff, supporters, members, and general public. The AGM will be accompanied by the annual Trevor Parmenter Awards, and there will be a guest speaker from the sector. Light refreshments will be served.

Relationships & Sexuality

Date: 21 November 2018

Registration Fee: $185

This one day workshop will provide a brief introduction and opportunity to explore relationships and sexuality for people with disabilities. There will also be the opportunity to reflect on where to from here for their service, practice and the people they support. Facilitated by Jemima MacDonald & Sarah Wagstaff.

TO REGISTER: For more information or to register go to www.cds.org.au/events